

I support the American Radio Relay League's comments. They have been in the field doing testing and it appears the supporters of BPL have not done enough testing. Please do not pass this as it now stands.